

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of The University of Alabama Chapter of Delta Epsilon Chi is:

- To encourage the practice of ethics in business
- To instill in its members the great importance of both Marketing and Management in any business situation
- To ensure that all members have an understanding of the free enterprise economy and the many opportunities that it offers
- To enrich and improve the Tuscaloosa community through service projects and other charitable activities
- To provide its members with educational and leadership experiences through interaction with other chapters and with local businesses, which will give members an advantage over others in the work force.
